MESSAGE FROM THE TOWN MANAGER

The Year Behind Us & the Year Before Us

Another holiday season is here. Between family, travel, special events and other gatherings, it is the time when we both look back to the year that has past while looking forward to the year ahead.

I would like to thank Town staff, community volunteers and elected officials for their dedicated efforts that has resulted in an outstanding year for the Town of Surfside. On behalf of the Town, I would like to extend warm holiday thoughts and wishes of a happy and healthy new year to all residents.

With your continued support and input, we look forward with confidence that we can achieve even more in 2017 – resulting in a greater quality of life in Surfside.

- Guillermo Olmedillo, Town Manager

Wishing you the best in the New Year!

AROUND SURFSIDE

89th Street Sings a New Tune as Sid Tepper Street

Dozens of family members, friends, neighbors and Town staff and officials attended a street naming ceremony honoring the late Sid Tepper, a 35-year resident who was famous for writing hundreds of songs, including 50 for Elvis Presley. Sid and his wife Lillian moved to Surfside in 1969 with their five children. His song Red Roses for a Blue Lady, was an international hit that climbed to number 3 on the Billboard charts. Sid was featured as a Surfside Star in the May 2015 Gazette, a month before his passing. Surfside proclaimed his 90th birthday Sid Tepper Day.

CODE COMPLIANCE CORNER

Construction Work Days and Hours

Did you know that the Town of Surfside has an Ordinance that regulates the days and hours of construction work? All residents, businesses, developers and contractors are required to adhere to and follow the Ordinance requirements.

Going forward from the date of the adoption of this new Ordinance, all construction activities that require a building permit, such as electrical, plumbing, mechanical, roofing and structural work, are restricted to working on Monday through Friday, from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m., and are prohibited on Saturdays, Sundays and all federal holidays. There are some exceptions, such as work related to infrastructure and utilities, roadways, other public right-of-way construction, minor repairs and maintenance activities inside of private dwelling units as well as painting with manual tools (no commercial sprayers).

The Town Manager may authorize construction activities outside of the established work days and hours on a case-by-case basis.

For construction projects over 10,000-square-feet in size or valued over $1 million in cost, contractors are required to post notice signs at the property to state that the property is an active construction site. In addition, the contractor is required to provide contact information for public complaints and concerns.

The Town's Noise Ordinance provides additional rules and regulations as to noise that is generated from construction activities. In general, loud, excessive or continuous noise is prohibited. If you have any questions concerning construction work days and hours, then please contact the Town's Code Compliance Division by calling (305) 861-4863, extension 230.

Surfsiders Change A Family's Life with Thanksgiving Gift

Last November, Surfside residents Joe and Susan Miranda were watching a Neighbors 4 Neighbors television program profiling the Cosenos family. Neighbors 4 Neighbors is a non-profit organization helping families in South Florida who are in need.

The family was struggling with their 8-year-old triplets – Ellie, Gigi and Carmina – all suffering with brain tumors. Because of medical bills, the family had sold much of their belongings, including their second car. Now, the reporter said, the father uses their only car for work and the mother does not have transportation to take the three girls to doctor's appointments.

"My wife and I both looked at each other and we both nodded. We needed to do something, there was no thinking about it," said Joe Miranda. "I immediately called and left a message."

Within 24 hours, Joe and Susan donated their used car, a Kia SUV, to the Cosenos. They also paid all the expenses for the family to visit Legoland in Orlando. The family got the good news on Thanksgiving morning.

"I was in shock really. I couldn't believe it," said the triplets' mom, Kim Coseno about getting the phone call. "We can get the girls to the doctors now."

Joe put new tires and brakes on the car before handing over the keys to the Cosenos. He also wants to make sure the triplets have a special Christmas this year. "I'm excited about meeting them. It was meant to be," said Joe. The Coseno family is also overwhelmed by Joe and Susan's generosity.

"We're blessed and just truly thankful they came into our lives," added dad Joe Coseno. "We get to meet them and the things they've done for us. It's truly amazing. It's changed our holiday and our life."

POLICE BEAT

Marianne Durante is Newest Surfside Police Officer

Chief David Allen swears in Marianne Durante as the Police Department's newest Officer.

Marianne Durante, a Surfside resident with a long association with the Town, was recently sworn in as the newest officer in the Police Department. A former teacher who grew up in Egypt, Marianne became a Surfside resident in 2002 and raised her son in the community. She earned a Bachelor's degree in Special Education in 2012 and worked with students with disabilities. In 2015, Marianne decided to pursue a dream of working in law enforcement. She worked full time while attending the police academy at Miami-Dade College. She graduated in September and was awarded the Harry Everest Overall Outstanding Trainee award. Congratulations and welcome, Marianne!

Surfside Police Department participated in a Police Officer Assistance Trust (POAT) event at Aventura Mall on December 3 to collect donations for spouses and children of fallen officers. POAT is an organization dedicated to the law enforcement community of Miami-Dade County by providing assistance to the officers and their families in the times of hardship and personal crisis. During the holiday season, POAT volunteers collect at malls throughout the County. Volunteering was Officer Bryant Luke and Assistant to the Chief, Dina Goldstein along with officers from other departments.

OFFICERS OF THE MONTH

Investigation Results in a Quick Arrest

Surfside Detectives Sergeant Marian Cruz, Kemuel Gambirazio and Edward Carrasquillo were named Officers of the Month for their efforts in arresting a doorman for lewd and lascivious conduct and providing drugs to a child.

The detectives answered a call from a mother who had discovered her child was "sexting" with their building's doorman. They reviewed the text messages and confirmed there were explicit conversations between the subject and the juvenile about sex and drugs. Detective Sergeant Cruz and Detective Carrasquillo conducted a controlled text message conversation between the child and the subject. The subject offered to provide marijuana to the child.

The following day, Detective Carrasquillo and Detective Gambirazio approached the subject in the parking lot and found marijuana inside his shirt pocket.

At the Police Station, the doorman gave a full confession, including providing drugs and sending sexual text messages. The subject was arrested for lewd and lascivious conduct on a child, electronic transmission harmful to minors, possession of controlled substance (Xanax) and possession of marijuana. Detective Sergeant Marian Cruz, Detective Edward Carrasquillo and Detective Kemuel Gambirazio's skillful and professional investigation resulted in a confession and arrest in just four days.
