

CIVILIAN OF THE MONTH

Dina Goldstein Leads Annual Police Summer Camp

Executive Assistant to the Chief Dina Goldstein organized, directed and coordinated the Police Department's 11th Annual Police Teen Summer Camp. Dina has been the leading force behind the scenes of this program, including managing and scheduling classes, instructors, venues, transportation, equipment, refreshments, correspondence, supervision and the graduation ceremony. Dina worked closely with the instructors so the teenagers received exciting presentations and field trips (see September Gazette). Dina is commended for her hard work, selfless dedication and commitment to the Police Teen Summer Camp program, the Police Department and the Surfside community. Congratulations as Civilian of the Month!

Classes Begin for Annual Citizens Police Academy

The Police Department's 18th Annual Citizens Police Academy began on September 5, 2019 with an introduction of the Department from Chief Julio

Yero (left) and an exceptional presentation on the Judicial System from Florida State Senator Jason Pizzo (above). We are truly appreciative of Senator Pizzo's outstanding and continued support to Surfside.

Surfside Steps Up to Help Those Suffering from Dorian

To provide relief to the people of the Bahamas devastated by Hurricane Dorian, Surfside established a drop-off location for supplies. Twelve truckloads of generous donations have been delivered to the Relief Collection Center at the Youth Fair Grounds.

The donations has been made possible by the Surfside Police Department, the Parks and Recreation and Public Works Departments. Surfside thanks residents for their outpouring of support and solidarity, providing canned foods, clothes and essential supplies.

Police Event Brings Awareness to Childhood Cancer

The 2nd Annual Childhood Cancer Police Car Initiative hosted by the Mystic Force Foundation was on September 14, 2019 at Dante Law Plaza in North Miami Beach. The Gold Ribbon Event showcased police vehicles from all the departments in Miami-Dade County wrapped and decorated with Gold Ribbons in support of children battling cancer. Attendees experienced an unprecedented show of unity and support by law enforcement officers.
