Town Manager's Message

What a month this has been. Here are some of the activities of your Town Staff and the Town Commission since my last message:

- After years of planning, discussion and continued deterioration of our water sewer and storm drainage system, the Town Commission on April 12, 2011 approved a $16 million bond issue to fund the improvements. The next step is to open the bids for construction and determine which firm has given the Town the best price.

- Construction of the Community Center is moving at a brisk pace with work going on seven days per week (see page 2). We will be swimming this summer. Thanks to the neighbors who have lived with the construction for nearly eight months.

- The sewage force main break in Miami Beach created a real challenge which the Surfside Public Works Department met with flying colors. We had to truck nearly one million gallons of sewage to avoid an unthinkable mess in our single family neighborhood. Thanks to the Miami-Dade Water and Sewer Department and Shenandoah Septic Company who provided the hauling capacity to overcome this problem.

- The Downtown Vision Advisory Committee has been very busy. After the Town Commission challenged the Committee to finish its work on limiting certain non retail/restaurant uses in three months, the Committee met with landowners. A lively discussion ensued. Staff has presented a package of recommendations in late April which will eventually be reviewed by the Planning and Zoning Board and the Town Commission. Our appreciation to the many tenants and owners who responded to the Code Enforcement notices regarding more than 400 violations downtown. Check out the painting and other work as a result.

- The new high pressure washer has been delivered and downtown sidewalks are being cleaned and gum removed. To those of you who deposit used gum on

Baynanza Volunteers Clean Surfside Beach

From school groups to Brownies to local beach lovers, more that 150 volunteers reported to the Surfside beach site as part of the county-wide Baynanza event on April 16. Garbage bags in hand, the volunteers patrolled from the hard-pack sand to water's edge, picking up litter and trash.

Tree Planting Ceremony Marks Earth Day

The grounds of the soon-to-be-completed Community Center was the site of an Earth Day tree planting ceremony. Because of active construction, there was limited access to the site, but residents will be able to enjoy the trees at the opening of the Center. (L-R) Town Manager Roger M. Carlton, Arni Kotkin, Miami Dade Commissioner Sally Heyman, Mayor Daniel Dietch, Rosangela Hackett, Commissioner Michael Karukin and Police Chief David Allen.

Community Center Update

Construction continues seven days a week as the Surfside Community Center moves toward completion. At right is the exterior glass curtain wall system, which is designed to withstand hurricane force winds. Below is the concrete pavers for the pool deck are being installed. These pavers include a mixture of concrete, conch and abalone shell, creating an attractive and comfortable pool deck. Also, the mosaic tile installation began at the entry to the children's activity pool.

Trial Pet Waste Stations Now Available

On a trial basis, dog-waste disposal stations have been installed at several locations: Veterans Park (8750 Collins Ave.), at the beach entrance off the hard pack on 90th & 93rd Street, in front of Hawthorne Tot Lot Park, 89th & Dickens and 93rd & Byron. It is the pet owner's responsibility to clean up after their dog. Town Code Ordinances Sec. 10-32. A (1) and (2) state all dog waste must be immediately removed and disposed in a proper manner. If you are walking your dog near one of these trial stations please dispose of the waste in the containers provided. Please be considerate for those who use the park and beach.

Library Volunteers Recognized

More than 20 residents, Town staff and volunteers who provided assistance in the tremendous effort to distribute the resources of the Town Library were recognized and received certificates at the April Commission meeting. These volunteers eagerly await the Kindle library at the new COmmunity Center.

Kids Enjoy Spring Egg Event

Eggs-citement was in the air at the Surfside Spring Egg event at the 96th Street Park. The highlight of the morning was the dash across the field to pick up plastic eggs. The children and families also enjoyed arts and crafts and refreshments. The event was coordinated by the Surfside Parks and Recreation Department.

Employee of the Quarter

Bobby Gabriel, a member of Parks and Recreation Department, was recently named Town Employee of the Quarter. Bobby is pictured with Tim Milian and Mayor David Dietch.

the sidewalks...one question: Would you do that in your own home? Please use the trash containers.

•Soon you will see a pre-hurricane season tree trimming program begin for every public tree in Surfside. Many of our residents have dead trees in their yards. Code Enforcement has notified you of the need to remove those dangerous and unsightly trees. The prices provided by our Town-wide vendor for removing trees on private land are very reasonable. E-mail Public Works Director Bill Evans at Bevans@twonofsurfsidefl.gov to access this company.

•The Town Commission approved an additional protection to ensure that future development is beneficial to the Town. The new Development Impact Committee (DIC) will ensure that projects are not only compliant with the Code, but also address off-site impacts and other community goals. The DIC has held its first meeting and the results were reviewed by the Planning and Zoning Board.

These are just some of the activities of your Town Commission, Town Attorney and Staff. As always, thanks for the opportunity to manage this wonderful and unique community.

Off. Diana Dulaney Named Officer of Month (Twice)

For her quick actions in cases involving children, Officer Diana Dulaney has been twice honored as Officer of the Month for January and February.

Officer Diana Dulaney (C) is surrounded by her parents and Chief David Allen (L) and Mayor Daniel Dietch.

In the January incident, she was joined in the honors with fellow officer Craig Lovellette and an officer from Bal Harbour. The three worked together to track down a child who never arrived at school. Through their efforts, the child was found and returned unharmed to the parent. In February, Officer Dulaney was called to a home with a report of a baby in distress. When she arrived, she found a mother holding a one-year-old who was choking on food and starting to turn blue. Officer Dulaney used her training to dislodge the food and allow the baby to begin to breathe normally. Miami Dade Rescue arrived and treated and released the child on the scene. She was recognized for her professionalism and quick actions to protect and save lives.

Sgt. Torres Thanked by Strike Force

Sgt. Julio Torres (R) was recently honored for his nearly three years of dedicated service to the South Florida Money Laundering Strike Force. He is pictured with Police Chief David Allen.
